Four Officers Injured in House Fire

At 3:00 p.m. on Friday, November 13, 2009, Scituate Police officers responded to a report of a woman spray painting driveways and motor vehicles in the area of 24 Egypt Beach Road. Upon arrival it was discovered that there was a working fire in the home and that the female subject had barricaded herself inside and was refusing to leave. Officers forced entry and removed her from the burning home. Three officers were transported to South Shore Hospital and one was transported to Massachusetts General Hospital where they were treated for smoke inhalation and released. The 44 year-old female occupant of the home was transported to South Shore Hospital. Her condition is unknown at this time. The incident is under investigation by the Scituate Police and Fire Departments, Massachusetts State Police assigned to the State Fire Marshal's Office, and the Plymouth County Bureau of Criminal Investigation.
